Rainard Claus is a lawyer, co-founder of the law firm Schmalz Rechtsanwälte and partner in the Frankfurt office of AGS Legal since 2013. He is a specialist in labour law and specialises in advising companies, executives and employees on labour law. He has almost thirty years of experience in all areas of labour law, in particular in individual and collective labour law.

He represents his clients in all proceedings before labor courts. Due to his many years of experience as a lawyer in labour law, he has extraordinary litigation experience. He also represents his clients in insurance law matters, administrative offences and general court proceedings.

Projects (selection):

– Permanent representation of medium-sized employers in all questions of labour law.
