

Agnes Hock

LAWYER / FRANKFURT AM MAIN

+49 (0) 69 76 80 73-0

a.hock@ags-legal.com

Agnes Hock has represented AGS Legal at its Frankfurt office since 2018. Ms. Hock advises companies and individuals in all areas of white-collar criminal law, with a special focus on criminal compliance as well as on supporting companies in criminal investigation proceedings. In this context, Ms. Hock regularly assists companies in dealing with the criminal conduct of employees and provides preventive advice to avoid criminal accusations and the imposition of corporate fines. Before joining AGS Legal, Ms. Hock worked for a renowned criminal law firm in Darmstadt, focusing on criminal defense of individuals and companies in the area of white-collar criminal law.

Projects (selection):

- Advising and defending a large German company in the event of an imminent fine against the company on charges against employees of the company for bribing public officials.
- Criminal processing of an extensive corruption scandal in the construction industry and subsequent pursuit of civil damages claims arising from bribery and breach of trust against the company
- Internal investigations in a German medium-sized company due to allegations of fraud against employees at the expense of the company.
- Advising management in the criminal case of „Dieselgate“ before German authorities and courts