

Dr. Jacek Kielkowski, LL.M.

PARTNER / FRANKFURT AM MAIN

+49 (0) 69 76 80 73-218

j.kielkowski@ags-legal.com

Dr. Jacek Kielkowski, LL.M., is an attorney and partner at the Frankfurt office of AGS Legal. After studying law at the Universities of Trier, Lausanne and Krakow (LL.M.), Dr. Kielkowski worked as a research associate at the Institute for Civil Law and Labor Law headed by Professor Thomas Raab at the University of Trier, where he was awarded a doctorate after submitting a dissertation on plant-level agreements. Before joining AGS Legal, Dr. Kielkowski was a member of the Employment & Pensions team and the Compliance & Internal Investigations practice group of Noerr LLP, a global law firm. Dr. Kielkowski advises clients on all aspects of labor law and specializes in industrial relations, occupational pensions, HR compliance, employee data protection and internal investigations. Dr. Kielkowski is a member of the editorial team of juris PraxisReport Arbeitsrecht, a weekly newsletter on key decisions and new statutes in the field of labor law; juris PraxisReport Compliance & Investigations, another newsletter covering compliance and investigations; and the author of many other publications in these fields.

Durchgeführte Projekte (Auswahl):

- Call center provider: counseling in connection with administrative fine proceedings for alleged violations of the GDPR.
- German insurance company: defense against occupational pension lawsuits due to retirement benefits adjustment (all the way to the German Federal Labor Court).
- US financial services provider: defense against occupational pension lawsuits due to contingent liability.
- German bank: advising the supervisory board during an internal investigation of the board of management's responsibility for penalties in the US.
- German automotive supplier: internal investigations in Dubai and Germany.