Dr. Daniel Lampart has been an attorney at the Frankfurt office of the law firm AGS Legal since 2020. His practice focuses on the areas of private construction and real estate law and on litigation. Dr. Lampart specializes in advising national and international clients during all stages of a development project and on legal issues relating to commercial leasing. In addition, he supports clients with disputes in and out of court. His main focus with regard to litigation is likewise construction and real estate law. Here he also advises on the area of white-collar crime, particularly in relation to tax compliance and fiscal offenses. Dr. Lampart studied law with a focus on tax law in Heidelberg. After completing his degree, he worked as a research associate at the Institute for Public Finance and Tax Law at the University of Heidelberg under Prof. Paul Kirchhof. While working there, Dr. Lampart wrote his doctoral thesis on a topic related to finance and the constitution. He was subsequently employed at a major international law firm in Munich in the area of real estate law before moving to AGS Legal.
