

Dr. Alexander Hössl

LAWYER / FRANKFURT AM MAIN

+49 (0) 69 76 80 73 - 143

a.hoessl@ags-legal.com

Dr. Alexander Hössl specializes in advising and representing his national and international clients in all areas of litigation and arbitration proceedings. His practice also focuses on advising clients in the run-up to proceedings, in particular on questions of securing claims.

In recent years, Dr. Hössl has represented numerous clients in a wide variety of industries, including the financial sector, the transport industry, and the infrastructure and technology sector. These large-scale disputes typically concern the enforcement or defence of claims in the areas of corporate law, commercial law and contract for work and services law.

Dr. Hössl also advises in the context of shareholder disputes and on questions of the liability of executive bodies.

Durchgeführte Projekte (Auswahl):

- European private equity investor: ongoing advice and representation in various court and out-of-court corporate disputes in connection with investment in real estate funds
- One of world's leading manufacturer of memory chips: drafting contracts for various major projects and judicial enforcement of payment claims in the multi-digit million amount
- International large corporation (transport): defence against liability claims of a consortium partner in various litigation and arbitration proceedings
- International automotive supplier: judicial enforcement of claims for damages in the supply chain
- European real estate investor: advice and representation in various court and out-of-court disputes, in particular in the enforcement of claims in complex corporate structures
- European airline: judicial enforcement of claims for damages due to aircraft defects
- European provider of broadband infrastructure: judicial enforcement of claims in connection with the termination of a nationwide infrastructure project in Germany